JAMES WAS EFFICIENT.

(From Philadelphia Telegraph) EFFICIENCY was the topic that was being discussed at the gaffes in a Washington club the other night, when Congressman John G. Rothermel of Reading, was reminded of the declaration of an esteemed party named James.

The aforesaid James attended a circuit sometime since, where one of the big features of the show was a beautiful lion tamer. Entering the ring, followed by the lion, the fair charmer placed a lump of sugar between her pretty lips, which the lion took from her with his teeth. Instantly James sat right up and began to take notice.

"Great stunt, all right," he loudly shouted to the performer, "but I can do it, too!"

"Of course," scornfully replied the girl who didn't appreciate having her act minimized, "but do you really think you can?"

"Most, assuredly," was the prompt rejoinder of James, "just as well as the lion."
